

AAJA New York Chapter Fact Sheet

About Us

The New York chapter of the Asian American Journalists Association (AAJA) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit educational and professional organization dedicated to advancing newsroom diversity both in the newsroom and in the coverage of AAPI issues.

For more than 43 years, AAJA has advocated on behalf of AAPIs in the newsroom for stronger representation and more inclusion. The New York chapter is the largest chapter of AAJA with more than 2000 members representing journalists, media professionals, academics and students in New York City and the greater New York area including New Jersey and Connecticut.

Subscribe to receive Family Style, our monthly newsletter containing chapter news, announcements, job listings, and other information. To join an AAJA chapter, first join AAJA as a member. You can select your AAJA chapter while filling in your profile.

Join today: www.aaja.org/become-a-member/

www.aaja-newyork.org

Partner with Us

Panel/Author Talks/Social Events/Workshop

Previous programmings include:

- Asia Society: 2024 Elections and Why the Asian American Electorate Matters (AP, Bloomberg, MSNBC)
- Korean Cultural Center: How K-Drama Can Improve Mental Health (Author Jeanie Chiang)
- Cultural Lab LIC: The Future of Arts & Culture Journalism (NYT, ARTnews, Asian American Arts Alliance)
- The MET: Lunar New Year Celebration
- Others include: mental health Initiative, creative writing workshop, film screening, NYC Marathon, Trivia Bowl, etc.

Strategic Partners

South Asian Journalists Association, Asian American Writers' Workshop, WNYC The Metropolitan Museum, Johnson & Johnson, Corky Lee Estate, Apex for Youth, ESPN, Red Ventures, WSJ, China Institute, etc.

Contact Us

 newyork@aaaja.org

 @aaajanewyork

 @aaajanewyork

donate & support our mission

Purchase our merch at:
aajany-shop.fourthwall.com